山水联盟2020年12月考试读后续写讲评 Honesty Won't Let You Downnedu.com

Thinker, Tiantai High School

Reading

Still Feel $1/7 zala

Asad was a 13-year-old boy who was very honest and hardworking. Recently, he had entered a new school so he had no friends yet, On Monday morning, he was nearly late for school. The night before, his family attended his cousin's wedding and reached home late, which was why he couldn't get up on time as usual.

At school, Asad could not pay attention to anything and wanted the bell to ring so that he could buy something to eat. After a few hours, when the bell rang, Asad quickly opened his schoolbag to find his money, but just then he remembered that he had left for school in a hurry in the morning and forgotten to take money, He looked under his books, hoping to find some money but there was nothing.

Not knowing what to do, he walked out of the classroom and sat on a bench in front of the canteen. He saw a few of his classmates there, among them was Fahad. He was one of the richest kids in his class but he was a very arrogant boy who thought everyone else was a loser. But as Asad was new, he didn't know much about Fahad.

When he went towards Fahad and asked if he could borrow some money for his lunch, Fahad laughed a lot and said, "I knew you were a loser, maybe a beggar? "Fahad laughed out so loud that other kids also heard and made fun of the situation. He didn't answer Fahad, and slowly walked back towards an empty bench.

Reading

When he reached the bench, he noticed something lying near it. It was a wallet. He picked it up and recognized it as Fahad's, as he remembered Fahad showing it to his friends and telling that his uncle bought it for him from the UK. There was quite a lot of money inside for a kid.

Para 1: At first, Asad wanted to Keep it a secret and punished Fahad.___

Para 2: Then Fahad said, "Why are you giving it back?"

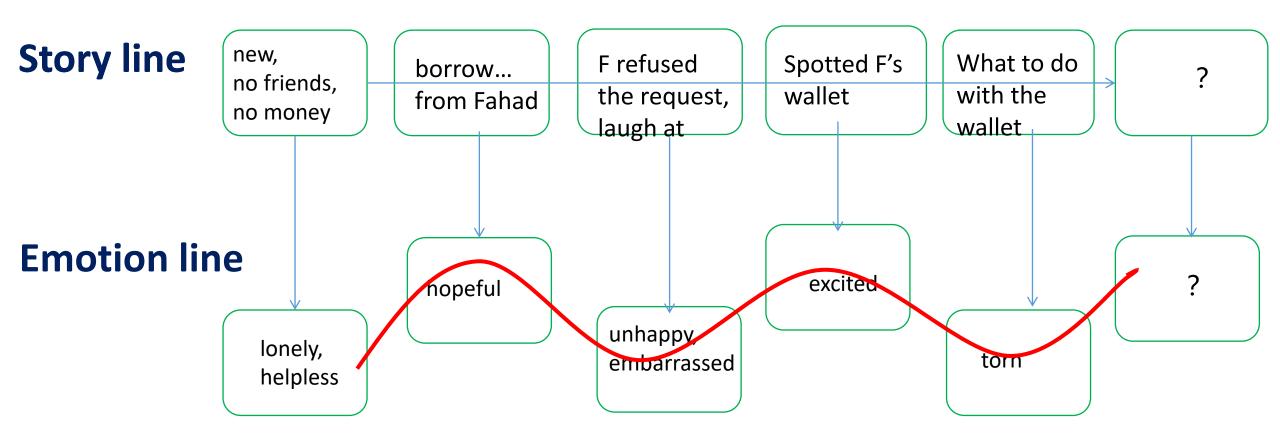

Understanding the story

Asad, an honest and hardworking boy, was a newcomer to the school without friends around. One day he was in such a hurry that he forgot to take money with him. As a result, he had either to go without food or borrow money from Fahad, an arrogant boy who was one of the richest boys and thought everyone else was losers Naturally, Fahad turned down his request and even laughed at him, which made him embarrassed(embarrass). Left alone on the bench in front of the canteen, he quite accidentally spotted a wallet on the bench. He immediately recognized it belonged to Fahad, with a lot of money inside.

下水作文

At first, Asad wanted to keep it a secret and punished Fahad. At least he could afford the lunch now. However, another voice popped up, urging him to give it back to Fahad, which made him feel torn. "I should never keep the wallet at the cost of my honesty, and Fahad would be extremely embarrassed without any money in the presence of so many classmates!" Asad convinced himself. Once he made up his mind, he accelerated his pace and caught him up. "Fahad, it's your wallet and I found it on the bench." Taking over the wallet, Fahad stared into Asad's eyes with a puzzled look written on his face. (98)
