【I Center, Activating The Love in Our Society】

Note: why are we doing this charity event?

Most people might think that donations in charity can only be carried out by large businesses, or people from an upper class socioeconomic background. Or people might even think that there are simply too many people and places that require our help, especially when our help is limited by our personal finances.

We want to promote the notion that even donating only 10 RMB will allow each individual to make a difference. What we are collecting is not just 10 RMB per step but also the love of each individuals that donate their money, in the hope that more people will participate in what we do and continue to share their love with those in need of it.
