2021.1 八省联考英语读后续写：爱心修车

www.sunedu.com

余杭区杭州二中树兰高级中学 郭合英

阅读下面材料，根据其内容和所给段落开头语续写两段，使之构成一篇完整的短文。

During this past year, I've had three instances of car trouble. Each time these things happened, I was sick of the way most people hadn't bothered to help. One of those times, I was on the side of the road for close to three hours with my big Jeep. I put signs in the windows, big signs that said NEED A JACK (千斤顶), and offered money. Nothing. Right as I was about to give up, a Mexican family in a small truck pulled over, and the father bounded out.

He sized up the situation and called for his daughter, who spoke English. He conveyed through her that he had a jack but that it was too small for the Jeep, so we would need something to support it. Then he got a saw (锯子) from the truck and cut a section out of a big log on the side of the road. We rolled it over and put his jack on top, and we were in business.

I started taking the wheel off, and then, if you can believe it, I broke his tire iron. No worries: He handed it to his wife, and she was gone in a flash down the road to buy a new tire iron. She was back in 15 minutes. We finished the job, and I was a very happy man.

The two of us were dirty and sweaty. His wife prepared a pot of water for us to wash our hands. I tried to put a $20 bill in the man's hand, but he wouldn't take it, so instead I went up to the truck and gave it to his wife as quietly as I could. I asked the little girl where they lived. Mexico, she said. They were in Oregon so Mommy and Daddy could work on a fruit farm for the next few weeks. Then they would go home.

When I was about to say goodbye, the girl asked if I'd had lunch. Shall I go with my hands stretching in the air, and say anything before I go? With smile she led me in. I was so hungry that I had to eat anything. I bet it was delicious. When we sat down, the family grinned from ear to ear, so did I. We chatted for hours. We were friends for many years. After exchanging phone numbers, expressing my thanks again to the car, when the girl passed me.

After they left, I got into my car. The sight of the bag filled me with surprise. It was a smaller bag. The sight of the bag filled me with surprise. Inside was also a note, reading, "Dear friend, may you have a good life. to those in need." In a flash, with a smile I touched beyond words. I felt so there were nine suns in my chest. I made up my mind to pass it "to others." Just as a saying goes : "Gifts of roses, hand there are lingering fragrance."

I felt it was making me feel like I was in a dream. I asked if I'd had a dream then did I feel like this making me feel like I was in a dream. Reading my mind, the girl stepped out of her truck. In a split second, she handed it to me back breathlessly with a paper tightly in her hand and handed it to me mysteriously. Thanking her a thousand and one, I waved to their family and they disappeared out of my sight. I felt the lightest feeling of being touched by their heart.

After they left, I got into my Jeep and opened the door. astonishment deprived me of my power of speech. I handed them pieces of ham as well as a 20 dollar bill which they took with a grateful reading, "Thank you very much! Good luck to you!" I was touched by their words. Tears were welling up in my eyes, gobbling up the food. The words like a ray of sun warmed my heart. It was the first time that I had not been bored with my car trouble but it was a beautiful encounter. It dawned on me that as long as everyone gives love, the world will become a beautiful world.

9 Homework 1

A year ago, my friend and I went to a nearby town to attend a wedding. After the reception, we were waiting for a public transport bus to go back home. It was nine o'clock at night, and although many buses passed, none stopped.

We had waited for an hour and were getting desperate. We wouldn't be able to stay overnight because it was a weekday, and we both needed to work the next day. It was almost 10pm when a family who had attended the same wedding passed by in their car. Probably sensing that we were waiting for some means of transport, they stopped and gave us a lift.

I was so moved by their kindness, and I expressed my gratitude to them.

When we reached my hometown, the family dropped us at the nearest point from where we could catch a shared rickshaw (人力车) to get back to the spot where we had parked our bikes. On the way, a laborer stopped the rickshaw. The driver saw his clothes and asked him whether he had any money to pay the fare.

The laborer shook his head and said, "No." On hearing this, the driver refused to take him. I remembered my own plight (困境) a few minutes earlier, and I told the driver to allow the laborer to sit with us, as I would pay his fare.

What an immediate opportunity to pass on the family's act of kindness! That night, I felt lightness in my heart, and I went to sleep happily and filled with joy about what I had done. May this chain of kindness continue.
