Emergency Drill

An emergency drill was held in our school last Friday afternoon. When the alarm bell rang, all the classes ran to the playground orderly and quickly. No noises, just the rapid paces. It took only one minute and forty seconds when the last class arrived. The head teacher praised all of us!

Wang Jie, a new student in our class, was amazed at our reactions. “Never have I seen such great teamwork. You’re so highly disciplined” He said. In fact, everyone in the school likes such kind of drills, for it can save our lives.

When the birds sit on them, they double up with laughter. The clouds are floating and floating, floating to the side of the sun...” As he was listening, Peter began to envy that boy. Suddenly, he became mad, shouting towards the sky, “Oh, my God, the little boy is so poor, nothing but a pair of eyes! Why do you give him light?”

At this moment, a lady interrupted Peter. “You are wrong! My son is too poor to have eyes. What he just described is what I told him!” Astonished, Peter sat on the square, tears welling up in his eyes suddenly. Since then, the city charity would receive a large sum of money every year. The donor was the very millionaire named Peter.
