

Z20 名校联盟（浙江省名校新高考研究联盟）2023 届高三第二次联考

英语参考答案

第一部分：听力（共两节，满分 30 分）

1—5 ABCCA 6—10 ABBCB 11—15 BCACB 16—20 ACACA

第二部分：阅读理解（共两节，满分 50 分）

第一节：（共 15 小题，每小题 2.5 分，满分 37.5 分）

A: CDC B: CDDDB C: DBAD D: DABB

第二节：（共 5 小题；每小题 2.5 分，满分 12.5 分）

36-40 EGBDF

第三部分：语言知识应用（共两节，满分 30 分）

第一节：（共 15 小题；每小题 1 分，满分 15 分）

41-45 ABD CD 46-50 CBBAC 51-55 ADABD

第二节：（共 10 小题；每小题 1.5 分，满分 15 分）

56.graduated 57.Being 58.commitment 59.that/which 60.and 61.to/into 62.a 63.further 64.missions 65.asked

第四部分：写作

第一节：应用文写作（满分 15 分）

Dear Jason,

Exhilarated to know that you are enthusiastic about the Youth Volunteer Association, I am writing to introduce it to you. Welcome to join!

Founded in 2020, the association, with the purpose of serving society, enjoys great popularity in the school. Since its foundation, various activities have been arranged, ranging from helping the old clean their houses in communities to organizing charity sales to raise money for needy students.

Once you have decided to join us, please fill in the application form attached and send it to me. Looking forward to your participation.

Yours,

Li Hua

第二节：读后续写（满分 25 分）

Para 1: So Max and Charley, accompanied by my mom, began their mission. Driven by the prospect of having delicious ice-cream, the two kids scampered ahead so fast that my mom could hardly follow. Not knowing which direction the truck had taken, they had to inquire passers-by on the way. Having walked three blocks, my kids felt their tiny legs as heavy as lead and their faith in the mission began to waver. “We should give up.” They wondered out loud, “We have been walking pretty far and still can’t see the truck yet.” “Never give up! The truck should be around here.” my mom said determinedly. So, they walked on, chanting Mom’s pet phrase.

Para 2: Max and Charley, encouraged by my mom, walked another three blocks. Suddenly, my mom seemed to hear the familiar clang of the bell. “Listen, the ice-man’s bell!” shouted my mom excitedly. They immediately rushed to where the sound came from. Sure enough, the moment they turned around the corner, the ice-cream man's truck came into view. They quickly caught up and bought the ice-creams. Licking the ice-cream cones, the two kids finally tasted the joy of success. At that moment, my mom had done for my kids what she had done for me countless times. Simple though it was, that phrase has become our battle cry for the challenges we face.

英语听力原文

Text 1

M: We can't afford to give you a lot of money because we don't have high-paying jobs, but you must always know that your mother and I are very caring when it comes to helping you.

W: I know — and that is what I like about you. (1)

Text 2

W: Pardon me, what is the price of this keyboard? Is it on sale?

M: It is usually fifty dollars, but it is twenty percent off until the 15th of this month. (2)

Text 3

W: I have to go to the doctor's office right after school. If you want to go to the beach when I'm done, we can meet up there later.

M: I have to go to dinner with my parents later. Sorry. (3)

Text 4

M: What are you going to order? I'm thinking of getting the noodles.

W: Why not try something else? Their Italian dishes are good. For myself, I haven't decided.

M: I had one of those yesterday. Let's split a medium pizza and a large salad then. (4)

Text 5

M: Can you tell me the meaning of "piece of cake"? What about "easy as pie"? (5)

W: Neither is about dessert. They are similar in meaning to "no problem".

M: Well, have you ever made a pie? There is nothing easy about it.

Text 6

M: What will you do while you're in Rome?

W: I'd like to visit the Colosseum and the Trevi Fountain.

M: Anything else?

W: Well, also that tower that leans to the side.

M: You mean the Leaning Tower of Pisa?

W: Yes.

M: Well, that isn't in Rome. It's in a town called Pisa. If you're going to travel anywhere outside of Rome, I suggest Venice instead. (6) You'd like it a lot because you can travel around in boats there.

W: I'm only in the country for a week, though. (7) Would I have time to get to Venice?

M: I think you could spend two days in Venice and the rest in Rome. (7)

W: Great! I'll do that.

Text 7 (第8题为推断题)

M: When will you be finished with your work?

W: Give me another hour, please. I just have to write an environmental report before tomorrow.

M: That's fine. Our dinner reservation isn't until 8:00. It's only 5:45 now. We can leave the apartment at 7:15. Is that enough time for you to get yourself ready?

W: Yes, definitely. I don't want to keep your parents waiting, either, so I'll try to hurry up. (9)

M: Don't worry. They can order snacks and drinks if we're a bit late.

W: I don't want to make them upset. (9)

M: They understand how important it is to work. They'll be impressed with your commitment. They'll also be relieved that at least one of us is earning money, since my book hasn't found a publisher yet!

W: Ha-ha! OK, Mike. Let me get this done. I can't concentrate when you're joking around.

Text 8

W: How was your trip back home, Michael? (10)

M: It was good. It was fun, and it was...a bit strange, also. (10)

W: What do you mean? I thought you were born in Germany.

M: Actually, I was born in France. My family moved to Germany when I was five, so that's why I call it home.

W: I see. So what was so strange about it?

M: It's hard to explain. I mean, I've only been living here in England for a few years, (11) but I didn't realize how long it's actually been until I saw all my old friends.

W: Were they different?

M: No, it was me who was different. I expected it to feel like I had never left, but everything felt so unfamiliar to me...like...what is that saying?

W: Like a fish out of water?

M: That's it. Anyway, I promised to stay more in touch with my friends and learn about their lives. (12)

W: Do you think you will ever go back there to work?

M: I don't think so. England is my home now. (11)

Text 9 (第 13 题为推断题)

M: Our biology test is going to be so hard. I failed last week's test and I'm so afraid of doing the same for this one. I'm going to have to study for hours this week! I'll never make it to basketball practice.

W: I did well on the last test, so I know I'll do well on this week's too. But my soccer team just made it to the final game. I need to practice! If I don't practice, I could be the reason we don't win! (14) It's like when you play baseball in the spring, (15) you guys are always winning and you never have time to study!

M: Yeah, we're actually really good, but I don't want to play anymore. (15) The practice takes up too much time, and it's no longer fun. Besides, my grades are more important to me. Since you can't study after school, would you want to study together during lunch? There's an empty classroom on the first floor. (16)

W: Why not study in the library? There are big tables we can use, and it's in the same building. Just two floors above. (16)

M: The library is too busy. Even though it's quiet, there are too many people. But I just remembered there are study rooms on the second floor. Let's go there instead.

Text 10

Good morning, students. We have an important announcement to make this morning. Mr. Jenkins, your physical education teacher, will be leaving us after 25 years at Evergreen High School. (17) (18) Together, we have shared many great memories here, and he is a big part of our school's history. He led the boys' basketball team to a championship the last two years and has also helped out with other sports programs. Although we are sad to see him go, we are happy for him, too. He has been a fantastic coach, a teacher, and more importantly, a good friend. He has told us that this decision has been very hard for him. However, his mother has become ill, and it is the right decision for his family. (17) Unfortunately, Mr. Jenkins will not be able to end the year with us, as he is traveling back to his hometown this Friday. (18) This means we won't have time for a proper goodbye celebration, but we hope you will all visit him before he leaves. And finally, to show respect for our good friend, we will be naming the gymnasium "Jenkins' Gym" at the end of the month. (19) Taking over his duties until summer vacation will be our math teacher, Mr. Ryan. (20) We also have a goodbye card you can sign at the office. Thank you for your attention and have a good day.