(Text 1)

W: Why didn't you go to the football match last night?

M: Oh, I'm going on holiday to Saipan tomorrow, so I had to pack my suitcase instead.

(Text 2)

M: How tall is that tree, Mum? Is it taller than ten meters?

W: It's not that tall, Jack. It's maybe... eight meters? No, look! It's only about six meters high.

(Text 3)

M: Good morning, Miss Kelly! Do we have anything interesting to do in our science class today?

W: Yes. First, we are going to collect some leaves that have fallen from the trees. Then we will compare the colors of those leaves.

After that, we will use the leaves to make a card. Now, let's head outside.

(Text 4)

W: Hello. I'd like a chocolate ice cream, please.

M: Sorry, that's all gone. We've only got these two kinds left.

W: Oh! OK, I'll have a banana one, then. I don't like coffee ice cream.

(Text 5)

M: Have you got my geography textbook? I left it next to the TV last night.

W: No, Paul. I've got mine, but I haven't got yours. Go and look under your bed!

M: It's not there! Oh, here it is... on the cupboard. Who put it there?

(Text 6)

W: What seems to be the problem?

M: I've got this awful flu and a terrible cough.

W: When did you start coughing?

M: The cough started three days ago. It wasn't very severe when I started coughing this Monday, but now I'm coughing very badly.

And I've got a sore throat.

W: Have you had a temperature?

M: No. I took my temperature this morning. It was normal.

W: OK. I'll just listen to your chest. Now breathe in and out slowly. And again. Good.

(Text 7)

W: Look—the cafeteria is almost empty! We won't have to wait in line too long.

M: Good idea. Let's get our favorite foods quickly now before it gets too crowded.

W: Take it easy. Today is Saturday, so it will stay open longer than usual.

M: OK. Hmm. I think I'll have one of the salads today and something to drink. Are you going to have a salad too?

W: I think so. And maybe a bottle of juice... and a cup of that soup, too. It looks really good! But I'll pass on the dessert. I've been eating way too many sweet things lately!

(Text 8)

W: Hello! Can I help you?

M: Well, I'm just looking for things to do here in Guemsey.

W: Sure, well, I can show you a few things. Here's a map of the capital, St. Peter Port. This is Castle Cornet. In fact, there's a concert at the castle on Saturday night.

M: What else is there to see?

W: If you're interested in history, go to the St. James Concert Hall. There's an interesting video show there about the history of the island.

M: Sounds interesting.

W: It is. The Candie Gardens are here, and this is Hauteville House. The French writer Victor Hugo lived here. And there are lots of lovely cafés.

M: Where's the best place to go walking?

W: Let's see. Well, there's a guided walk around St. Peter Port today. It lasts an hour and a half.

M: Sounds good. What time's that?

W: Two o'clock.

(Text 9)

W: Hi, Jeff. Hey. Have you been to the art room today?

M: No. Why?

W: Well, Mr. Jennings hung up a notice about a big project that's going on downtown. You know how the city's been doing a lot of work to fix up Main Street—you know, to make it look nicer? Well, they're going to create a painting on the wall.

M: Where? I know there is a Yonghui Supermarket on Main Street. There?

W: No, it's going to be on that big wall on the side of the public library. Students from this school are going to do the whole thing... create a design, paint it, everything. I wish I could be a part of it, but I'm too busy.

M: Cool! I'd love to help design it. Imagine everyone in town walking past that wall and seeing my artwork every day.

W: I thought you'd be interested. They want the painting to be about nature.

M: That makes sense—they've been planting so many trees and plants along the streets and in the park.

W: If you're interested you should talk with Mr. Jennings.

M: This could be so much fun. Maybe I'll try to visit the zoo this weekend... you know, to see the wild animals and get some ideas!

W: Well, maybe you should go to the art room first to get more information from Mr. Jennings.

M: Oh, yeah. Good idea.

M: Hi and welcome to Up For It, the radio program for people with a taste for travel. First up this week, our competition. Blue Travel Company are offering two lucky people the chance of an all-expense-paid journey across Russia. The winners will travel the whole journey over land or water; that means by train, bus, boat, even on horseback—but no planes! Now, how to enter the competition. You need to write a story with the title Holiday Adventure. It can be about a journey anywhere in the world. Your story can be fiction or non-fiction. You can use your imagination. Your story should be between 800 and 1,000 words long—no more than that. Only one entry per person is allowed, so please don't send us ten stories, OK? The closing date for entries is 3rd October. We'll announce the results on 16th November. Please write your full name and address on the back of each page of your story, and send it to me. As well as the big prize, we're giving away 25 backpacks and Radio Nova T-shirts to people whose stories we particularly like. The two winning stories will be read out on air sometime on 25th December, and we hope to interview the two winners on the program. OK. Now let's get traveling. Can you imagine walking the length of the Andes Mountains in South America with only...

In July 1915, Henry and his eight-year-old daughter, Pearl, were thrilling at the company outing a next day. To be honest, it was a really preciously chance for them to relax. However, that evening, Henry had a disagree with his landlord, result in a violent argument. Henry was so upset that she fell ill and abandoned the plan to go on the trip. He and Pearl miss the ship, over 800 passengers on that lost their lives—except my future grandfather and mother. Thanks for that argument more than 100 year ago, I am alive today.

Notice

Fellow students,

In order to help us understand the new trash separation rules, which are related to the “Waste-free School” campaign recently started in our school, we have decided to hold a series of educational programs this term.

Dr. Wang is going to host the first lecture at the auditorium from 4:00 to 5:30 pm, on 1 May 2020. He will also help us tell the harmful and unrecyclable trash from the recyclable one.

All of the students are welcome to the lecture. Please attend on time and switch off your phones and keep quiet during the lecture. We hope his lecture will help us clarify all our confusions.
