参考答案、提示及评分细则

第一节

(Text 1)

W: Where are you planning to travel in April, Jack?

M: I'm thinking of traveling to Boston.

W: Why?

M: I want to watch the Boston Marathon! It's on April 20.

W: Why not take part in the marathon?

M: Well, you need a lot of training to take part in a marathon, and I haven't done any training at all.
Perhaps I can next year.

(Text 2)

W: David, what about going to a movie after school?

M: I don't think we can make it. We're going to have a general cleaning this afternoon. Don't you remember we do it every Thursday afternoon?

W: Oh, yes. What's my group going to do this week?

M: Sweep the floor.

W: Sweep the floor again? We did that last week. Can we clean the windows or clean the blackboard instead this week?

M: OK. Then I'll ask my group to sweep the floor instead this week.

(Text 3)

W: Henry, you look like you're on top of the world. What's up?

M: I just got the news that the painting I finished last month has been chosen to be exhibited in the City's Student Art Show.

W: Really? That's great news.

M: So do you want to go to the show?

W: Sure. When will it be held?

M: From 9 am to 4 pm next Monday. I really can't wait to go.

(Text 4)

W: Have you been to that new market in town, Mr. Salt?

M: Yes, I took all the family there last week. It sells all kinds of things. I bought a very nice dark blue suitcase there.

W: Did anyone else buy anything?

M: Well, my oldest son David got a volleyball.

W: You've got a daughter too, haven't you?

M: I've got two! The older one is called Betty. She found some shorts which she liked a lot.

W: Did your wife go shopping with you?

M: Yes. She only got a magazine.

W: And what about your other children?

M: Well, my younger son John bought a little silver phone. He carries it everywhere with him now.

(Text 5)

My grandfather was called Charles, and my grandmother was called Ann. They lived in Manchester. They had three children, named David, John and Alice. They are, of course, my father, my uncle and my aunt. My father is called David, and he is the eldest of the three. My mother is called Mary and she is a doctor. My father is an engineer. My father's brother, my uncle, as I said, is called John. He's married to Heidi. They have two children. The elder is called Simon, and the younger is called Sally. My uncle John is in the army, serving in Germany. Simon is married to a girl called Diana. They have two children, Richard and Fiona. My aunt, Alice, married a man called Henry Jones. They moved to Australia when I was very young. I don't remember them very well.

第二节

Today, I'd like to share an inspiring moment with you. The recently-held school sports meet saw quite a few winners in the track and field events. However, my classmate Jim, though he came out last in the 400-meter race, left a deep impression on me. In the process of fast running, Jim lost his balance unexpectedly and fell over, making his ankle injured. Instead of giving up, he jumped on one foot to the finishing line.

This inspiring moment teaches me a lesson that when faced with difficulties in life, we should gather courage to overcome them instead of giving up halfway. Only with a strong will and determination can we realize our own value.
