Disneyland is indeed a fantasy land, where you can find a lot of cartoon characters in the fairy tale. Named after Walter Disney, who is famous for his motion picture production companies, the theme park attracts millions of tourists around the world each year. No wonder many people book the tickets in advance of visiting the park.

The first Disneyland park was opened in Anaheim, California on July 17, 1955, when Walt's brother bought the first Disneyland admission ticket. Now, there are six Disneyland parks around the world, bringing amusement to a lot of people. Pirates of the Caribbean is said to be the most popular attraction at Disneyland, and in the entire world.
