One Possible Version:

My Future Invention

To improve the convenience of transport and raise the efficiency of commute in daily life, I design a little invention and name it Flying Skateboard.

Apart from resembling other ordinary skateboards, it has supreme flying performance as the name suggests. No matter which mode the travellers choose, gliding or flying, just tell the board where they intend to go and press on the button, and the best route will be mapped out straight away. Besides, equipped with safety devices, it will ensure a safe and sound journey to the destinations. What's more, the skateboard can be charged automatically wherever the sun shines, which means a possible reduction in the use of fossil fuels.

Not only does it offer riders more exposure to the open air with unusual views to admire, but also it promotes a greener lifestyle by saving energy and cutting emissions down. I am firmly convinced that my invention is to help enhance the quality of life and achieve great popularity.

One Possible Version:

The phone was ringing when we got to the back door. After answering the phone, my father understood what had happened. It turned out that the farmer called to ask whether I was safe or had any other injuries. Father assured him that I was safe and sound and offered to make up for the damage I caused to his truck. To our surprise, the farmer declined my father's offer. Meanwhile, my mother helped treat my lip and swollen eyes with some ice. "Don't worry about the car. Your safety matters most." my father comforted me. To my great delight, they decided to accompany me to the graduation ceremony.

I graduated that evening with my family in attendance. With my parent's company, I enjoyed an unforgettable and meaningful graduation ceremony. Even many years later, the laughter and sweet memory we shared together still lingered in my mind. Had it not been for my father's unconditional love and encouragement, I would have been sunk in depression and guilt. I finished high school, growing into a loving and confident person. I was so grateful that my dad taught me what's most valuable in my life.
