Activity 3

MOTHER OF TEN THOUSAND BABIES

Lin Qiaozhi not only helped deliver the babies, but she dedicated her whole life to the mothers and children!

Activity 4

Let's read and think:

Do you think Lin Qiaozhi would regret making so much sacrifice to help others?

Para.1: “Life is precious. ... To a person nothing is more precious than their life, and if they entrust me with that life, how could I refuse that trust, saying I'm cold, hungry, or tired.”

Para.6: And even as she lay dying, her final thoughts were for others. ...

“As long as I can breathe, I belong to my department. The value of my life lies in treating patients.” --- Lin Qiaozhi

This was her life principle, and this was a great woman who stayed true to her original aspiration(初心).

Further thinking

- Have you found your principle to carry through?
- Who/What are you going to fight for?

No matter what you choose,
stick to your original aspiration!

Homework

Read the dilemma attached.
Make your own choice and give your reasons.
