阅读下列短文，从每题所给的四个选项（A、B、C、和 D）中，选出最佳选项，并在答题卡上将该项涂黑。

A

An old gentleman who lives a few doors away from me can always be seen with a bag. He goes out by himself and picks up plastic bottles, plastic bags and pieces of paper everywhere. He does it all carefully and never complains.

The children in the nearby school are probably responsible for some of that litter (废弃物). “There will come a time when they know better,” he said. “It’s just not yet. So, I’ll do it for them.”

Well, this morning I was out walking my neighbor’s dog when I saw another neighbor, a much younger man, out doing the same thing! He had his two little sons with him and they were having good fun trying to pick up the litter.

When I commented on what a good job he was doing, he said, “Well, an older fellow in our street does this. And my friend and I thought it wasn’t fair that he had to do it all the time, so now we take turns.”

Not only was he taking a turn, not only did he have a friend join in as well, but he was passing on the lesson to the next generation!

By the time I had returned the dog to my neighbor I looked again and his children’s friends had joined in!

This man was teaching a whole group of young children to keep their own street tidy. An older man had set an example for him and now he was passing it on — the next generation is doing what he did and the generation to come after that!

21. The old gentleman picks up the litter _____

- A. to make money
- B. to help the cleaners
- C. to keep the environment clean
- D. to set an example to children

22. The younger man did the same thing as the old gentleman because _____.

- A. it was his turn
- B. it was interesting for him
- C. he wanted to share the job with the old man
- D. he wanted to pass it on to his children

23. What can we learn from the text?

- A. No pains, no gains.
- B. The power of example is endless.
- C. Two heads are better than one.
- D. Like father, like son.

B

Sunday, October 5

Clear, 69 °F

My wife, Eleanor, and I took the train from Paris to Strasbourg, where we were met by our driver and guide, and the minibus which goes along with the boat. We stopped off in Barn for an hour on the way. Then we were taken to Nancy where the boat was kept.

After the other passengers arrived, we had our first dinner on the boat. After dinner we walked into downtown Nancy, a village with a large square and wooden houses.

Monday, October 6

Rained last night, cloudy in the morning, 69 °F

We spent about two hours in Nancy, then sailed on the Canal de la Marne au Rhine. Kind of a lazy day, eating breakfast, lunch, and dinner. After dinner we watched a tape on Baccarat, where we will visit tomorrow.

It was enjoyable to sit out on deck (甲板) and watch the scenery go by at about 3 mph.

Tuesday, October 7

Light rain, 64 °F

This morning we drove over to Baccarat and toured its museum and the church, which has this unbelievable lamp that is going on a world tour the next day. We did lots of shopping, then walked across the bridge to see a very, very modern Catholic church with special Baccarat windows.

We drove to the top of the Voges Mountains and started down the eastern side. Later we drove to Sorrenbourg to see the 13th century church at the Cordeliers. It contains the largest window by Marc Chagall - 24 feet wide by 40 feet high.

Wednesday, October 8

Cloudy, 65 °F

Today we sailed from Schneckenhush to Saverne. We went through, two caves, an extremely unusual part of the journey. This river scenery is very different. We were in a mountain valley with grassland on one side and a forest beginning to show some color on the other.

Thursday, October 9

Cloudy, 66 °F

Our dependable minibus was waiting to load the luggage and take us to the hotel where everyone went their separate ways. Our boating days are over until next time.

24. Where did the author get on the boat?

- A. Paris. B. Strasbourg. C. Nancy. D. Barn.

25. On which days did the tourists spend most of their time on the boat?

- A. Monday and Wednesday. B. Tuesday and Thursday.
C. Wednesday and Thursday. D. Monday and Tuesday.

26. What does the author think of the tour?

- A. Quick. B. Unusual. C. Tiring. D. Pleasant.

C

Adults usually do not remember most of the things that are taught by their teachers at school. But this story is one such lesson that I will never forget. Every time I drift off course, I think of this story.

Here they are:

Talk slowly

Generally, good talkers don't rush into a conversation. ___31___ They act as if they have all the time in the world. This makes them come off as centered and collected. Model this way of talking and you will create the same effect.

Hold more eye contact

Most people keep eye contact about 2/3 of the time or less when they talk. ___32___ This will convey confidence and interest in communicating with them.

___33___

People with good conversation skills tend to notice the kind of things that the average person doesn't notice, and to bring such details into the conversation. They may notice and point out an interesting ring on the other person's hand, a certain foreign accent, or a certain voice tone they use when saying a name. Thus, such individuals impress people in a very elegant manner.

Express your emotions

___34___ Express your feelings about those facts. Keep in mind that it is at the emotional level that people connect best.

Use the best words

The ability to talk smoothly has a lot to do with choosing the right words to convey your feelings or thoughts. ___35___ It will help you develop a way with words and allow you to express yourself more easily.

Conversational skills don't improve just like that. It takes time, practice and the ability to learn at a rapid rate from your own experiences.

- A. Don't just present the facts, you're not a newspaper.
- B. It's a very good idea to hold eye contact just a bit more than that.
- C. Notice the details.
- D. It is important to improve conversational skills.
- E. Offer interesting news.
- F. They take their time when they think something over and when they say it out loud.
- G. Develop your vocabulary and practice communicating as accurately as possible.

第二节 完形填空 (共 20 小题; 每小题 1.5 分, 满分 30 分)

There are many kinds of friends. Some are always ___36___ you, but don't understand you. Some say only a few words to you, but understand you. Many people will step in your life, but only ___37___ friends leave footprints.

I shall always recall (回忆) the autumn and the girl with the 38 . She will always bring back the friendship between us. I know she will always be my best friend.

It was the golden season. I could see the ___39___ leaves floating with the cool ___40___. In such a season, I liked walking alone in the leaves, ___41___ to the sound of them.

Autumn is a ___42___ season and life is uninteresting. The boring days always get me ___43___. But one day, the sound of a violin ___44___ into my ears like a stream (小溪) flowing in the mountains. I was so surprised that I jumped to see what it was. A young girl, standing in the wind, was ___45___ in playing her violin.

I had ___46___ seen her before. The music was so nice that I listened quietly. Lost in the music, I didn't know that I had been ___47___ there for so long but my existence (存在) did not seem to disturb her.

Leaves were still falling. Every day ____ 48 ____ she played the violin in the corner of the building. I went downstairs to watch her performance. I was the only listener. The autumn seemed no longer lonely and life became ____ 49 _____. ____ 50 ____ we didn't know each other, I thought we were already good friends. I believe she also loved me.

Autumn was nearly over. One day, when I was listening carefully, the sound suddenly ____ 51 _____. To my astonishment (惊讶), the girl came over to me.

"You must like violin." she said.

"Yes. And you play very well. Why did you stop?" I asked.

Suddenly, a ____ 52 ____ expression appeared on her face and I could feel something unusual. "I came here to see my grandmother, but now I must leave. I once played very badly. It was your listening every day that ____ 53 ____ me." she said.

" ____ 54 ____ it was your playing that gave me a meaningful autumn," I answered, "Let's be friends."

The girl smiled, and so did I.

I never heard her play again in my life. I no longer went downstairs to listen like before. Only thick leaves were left behind. But I will always remember the fine ____ 55 ____ of the girl. She is like a dream---so short, so bright, like a shooting star giving off so much light that it makes the autumn beautiful.
