第二节 应用文写作 (满分 25 分)

一、评分原则

1. 本题总分为 25 分，按 5 个档次给分。
2. 评分时，先根据文章的内容和语言初步确定其所属档次，然后以该档次的要求来衡量、确定或调整档次，最后给分。
3. 词数少于 60 的和多于 100 的，从总分中减去 2 分。
4. 评分时，应注意的主要内容为：内容要点、应用词汇和语法结构的丰富性和准确性及上下文的连贯性。
5. 拼写与标点符号是语言准确性的一个重要方面，评分时，应视其对交际的影响程度予以考虑。英、美拼写及词汇用法均可接受。
6. 如果没有正确使用求助信格式，评分时酌情从总分中减去 1-2 分。
7. 如书写较差，以致影响交际，将分数降低一个档次。

One Possible Version:

Dear David,

Having signed up for the English Dubbing Contest to be held by an English newspaper next month, I'm writing to ask for your help.

As it is my first time to enter a dubbing contest, I'm at a loss what to dub. So would you please recommend some suitable video clips? Besides, to be a fluent dubber, I am in need of your guidance on dubbing skills, especially the pronunciation, which is a big headache to me.

Your early reply is highly appreciated.

*Yours,
Li Hua*

听力原文:

Text 1

W: Is your phone in your purse? May I use it?

M: Sure, (1) but where's yours?

W: It's still on the charger in my bedroom, where I left it.

Text 2

M: Can you lend me 30 yuan?

W: I had 50 yuan, but I have just spent 30 yuan. (2)

Text 3

W: What are you guys laughing at?

M: It's this new movie called The Internship. It's very funny. (3)

W: What is it about?

M: This man doesn't know anything about the kind of work he's applying for, but he gets the job anyway. You've gotta see it!

Text 4

W: We are days away from our biggest game of the year, are you nervous?

M: Not at all. I think we will win. (4) All of us are busy practicing basketball skill now.

Text 5 (推断题)

M: Did anyone call while I was out?

W: Only your wife. She wants you to pick up some milk on your way home.

M: OK, thanks, Sarah. I'm headed to my next meeting now.

Text 6

W: Honey, did you like your birthday present?

M: What birthday present?

W: I sent you a birthday gift a week ago. Didn't you get it in the mail?

M: No...

W: Oh, no! The post office must have made a mistake again! This is the second package of mine that they've lost.

M: Don't worry. It'll probably still come. You know, sometimes the college mail system is really slow. Tammy sent me a package last month, but it didn't get to me for two weeks. (6)

W: Yes, but your sister lives farther away than I do.

M: Let's wait a few more days. I'll check at the school mail room, too. What did you get me, by the way?

W: It's a surprise. (7)

Text 7

M: Are you here to help out?

W: Yes. What can I do?

M: Well, first, you need to put on some gloves. There might be some dangerous things in the dirt. (9) There used to be a parking lot here. Most of the junk has been taken away already, but you might come across some broken glass. (9)

W: OK. Where do you need help most?

M: Over there at the north corner of the yard. We're going to plant green beans and potatoes in that space. You'll have to turn over the dirt. It's hard work.

W: I don't mind. I'm just so happy we're able to change this place into a city garden that the whole neighborhood will be able to use. (8) (10) Are there plans to make any more like this?

M: Definitely. We'll be starting three more in the next month.

Text 8

M: Marcy, you have to stop spending so much money. Your bad habit is going to kill our savings soon. (11) The hours I work are already reduced, and it's not like you are bringing in a fat paycheck. Where do you expect the money to come from? It doesn't grow on trees!

W: Aw, Dan! I don't spend that much! You're being too hard on me! The only extra things I buy are coffee and sometimes clothes.

M: I think you have enough clothes to last a while. And why don't you start making your own coffee at home in the morning? (12) That would save us a lot, since Starbucks is so expensive. I know you also go out to lunch with your co-workers almost every day...

W: Oh, don't make me give that up! I have to do it! I'd feel so left out at the office if I didn't go.

M: I'm not saying you shouldn't eat lunch with your co-workers. Just don't go to restaurants all the time. You guys could bring lunch from home and eat in the park. (13) It would be fun.

W: Yeah, they might like that.

Text 9

W: Wow! That was quite a journey!

M: Yeah! I thought we were just going for a nice hike up the mountain, but our guide was something else! (14) (16)

W: Well, he said he was born and raised here, (16) so he must really love this place.

M: I know. He turned out to be very cool.

W: At first, I thought he was really strange. (15) Remember the way he looked? His hair was really long. He wore nothing but a cloth around his waist, but he spoke English perfectly...

M: When I heard his name was Pa, I thought he was just another traveler. (16)

W: Yeah, and he wouldn't say a word the whole way up the mountain! It felt very strange, but then I started to like the silence. I could listen to the rainforest birds and look around at all the exotic plants better, because I wasn't distracted by talking. By the time we got to the top, I felt like we were on an island at the beginning of the world. I've never felt that way before.

M: It was a very spiritual experience for me, too. I think we should come back here every year and go on the same hike again.

W: Yeah, it's a good way to reset ourselves. Working in the business world can make us forget that we need to be quiet sometimes, and think about important things like family and friends. (17)

Welcome to LocalEnglish.com. Our website teaches English using only native speakers. What makes our website different from other sites? Well, we offer special training in American, British, and Australian English. (18) Simply select the country from the menu at the top of the home page. You will then have instant access to hundreds of lessons and exercises written by teachers from that country.

Most people know about the pronunciation and spelling differences among American, British, and Australian English. However, many students do not know that vocabulary and grammar are also different. There are many words and phrases in American English that simply don't exist in British or Australian English. And learning slang, or local street language, from different countries will help you sound more like a native speaker. (19) Culture is also important when learning English, and we have many country-specific lessons that deal with this area of language learning. This section is where you'll find songs, TV shows, movies, and restaurant menus from each area that our experts have collected. We also have a special chat room where you can ask a teacher a question 24 hours a day, no matter where you are. You can also join other people's chats and ask other students questions, too.

LocalEnglish.com is a truly amazing experience! Get started with your free trial today. After one week, just pay a small fee of $29 a month for unlimited use. (20) That's less than one dollar a day!
