Dear Mr. Smith,

I'm Li Hua, one of your students in your cultural class. Knowing you are interested in traditional Chinese culture, I am writing to invite you to the Traditional Chinese Cultural Fair to be held at the Art Center in our school this Saturday afternoon, from 2 pm to 5 pm.

The fair aims to promote traditional Chinese culture and anyone keen on it are welcome. At the fair, related books, pictures, videos and objects will be displayed, through which visitors will not only understand traditional Chinese culture better but also feel the unique beauty of it.

I have the confidence that you will have great fun here if you can come.

Looking forward to your early reply.

Yours sincerely

Li Hua

Text 1

W: Good morning, Mr. Craig. Would you like your usual cup of black coffee and a cheese sandwich?

M: Yes, please. Can you bring a small salad with that today? (1)

Text 2

M: You are taller than my sister, but shorter than my brother. We must be the same height.

W: No, I'm a little taller than you. (2) My eyes are higher than yours!

Text 3

M: Hey, Mom, do you think I could borrow your car to go to Dave's house? I just finished my homework.

W: Mine is getting fixed right now, but maybe you can ask your dad for his. (3)

Text 4

M: We promised to help Mrs. Yang with her garden today, remember?

W: Of course. (4) As soon as I have the chair fixed, we'll go to her house. And remember to bring her some food by the way.

Text 5

W: Let's do something today. How about going ice skating?

M: Have you been outside? It's like 17 degrees out there! It doesn't feel like winter at all.

W: Let's watch some movies at home then.

Text 6

W: Excuse me. Is this the line for Singapore Airlines?

M: Yes.

W: Thank you. Are you on the 10:10 flight, too? It's only 30 minutes until the flight takes off. (6) I can't miss this flight, because I need to be in Beijing for a meeting tomorrow.

M: My plane leaves in 2 hours. So, I have plenty of time to get through this long line.
You should probably ask an airline worker if you can go to the front, or else you might not make it.

W: You're right. Otherwise I would probably miss my next flight in Shanghai. (7)

Text 7

M: I couldn't finish my meal. Can I get it wrapped up? (8)

W: Of course. But we're short on staff tonight. Several of the waiters and waitresses are sick because of the weather. (8) And I'm so busy... (8) (9)

M: I understand. I have an idea. Why don't you just bring me a box? And I can do it myself. I'd like to give the rest of my food away to a homeless person. (10) It's cold out tonight, and I know there must be someone who doesn't have enough to eat.

W: OK, I'll go get a box for you.

Text 8

M: Okay, class, we are going to go over what will be on the test in two days. I will divide you into three groups. (11) You will come up with some questions. The questions can be exchanged between the groups. We will work on some of the problems here, and you will need to take the rest home and hand in tomorrow. That way, in two days, you will be all ready for the test. Mandy and Bella will be in the first group. (12) David and Emma will be in the second group. Camilla and Tim will make up the third group. Do you have a question, Emma?

W: Yes, will we need to bring anything for the test?

M: I have pencils and the test paper already, but bring this question homework with you for the test. (13)

Text 9

M: This doesn't look familiar at all. I think I might be lost...

W: At least we can still see the river.

M: Well, I wanted to follow the road by the river. But it looks like the road is gone.

W: The weekend storm must have made the river rise. (14) We can walk here on the high ground.

M: I hope it's safe to walk across the bridge. We need to get to the other side before evening. (14)

W: It's an old stone bridge. It's very strong, (15) and it has survived bigger storms.

M: That is true. I remember crossing it when I was a child. My uncle even taught me how to catch fish on it.

W: When I was a girl, I would hide under the bridge when my older sister was looking for me. (16) I always got in trouble with her!

M: What did you do?

W: I loved to play tricks on her, and it made her angry. I could run faster than her, though. And she never looked for me under the bridge, ha-ha!

Text 10

Hi, I'm He Yuhong, and I have a talent that I'd like to share with you. I can change my face to look like whoever I want, just by using makeup(化妆品). (17) I consider myself an artist. I use makeup like a painter uses paint to make a beautiful picture. It might look like I use a computer program like Photoshop to make my pictures look more real, but it's really only my face and the makeup. I share the pictures I create on my face with my fans on Instagram and YouTube. I also feature my work in short videos on Tik Tok. Before I started to do my art as full-time work, I was a teacher in Chongqing. (18) I started to share my artwork online in 2017, (19) and I wasn't prepared for the big response. In May 2018, I shared my latest work: I made my face look like the famous Mona Lisa painting. Just overnight, tens of thousands of people liked my work on Tik Tok. (20) I've also done my face as Michael Jackson, Angelababy, and many other famous people.
