1. 递送 Delivery

现代社会飞速发展，物流和快递行业非常发达，我们要懂得用英语安排货运。货运方式可以归类为四种：空运，快递，海运，陆运。至于选择海运还是陆运，要看地理位置。比如，中国东北到俄罗斯，当然首选陆运。如果是广州到休斯敦，当然是走海运。选空运还是快递，主要是看货物的重量和体积。快递都是 door-to-door 服务，而空运是 door-to-airport。

1. 你们喜欢什么样的货运方式？空运还是快递？

➤ What kind of shipping method do you prefer ? by airplane or by courier ?

2. 如果选择空运，货仅送到机场，货到的时候，你要去提取。

➤ If choosing the way by air, the goods are just sent to the airport, you need to pick up the goods when it arrives in your city.

3. 如果选择快递，你在家收货就好。

➤ If by courier, you can take delivery of goods at home.

4. 走海运，你要让货代公司帮忙清关。

➤ If by sea, you have to let your forwarder to make custom clearance.

1. 递送 Delivery

1. 请问，这是寄包裹的柜台吗？

➤ Excuse me. Is this the parcel post counter?

2. 请为我寄这个包裹。

➤ Please send this parcel for me.

3. 我想把这个包裹寄到太原。

➤ I'd like to have this parcel delivered to Taiyuan.

4. 你要保险吗？

➤ Do you want it insured?

5. 保险费是多少？

➤ How much do I need to pay the insurance fee for this parcel?

6. 请详细填写内装物品的名称。

➤ Please write the names of the contents in details.

7. 根据规定，这些东西不能寄往国外。

➤ According to the regulation, these things are not permitted to send abroad.

1. 递送 Delivery

8. 这包裹超重2公斤。

➤ This parcel is overweight by two kilos.

9. 加急服务要加收30%的费用。

➤ We charge 30% extra for express.

10. 你们是否可以将装运时间提前一点？我们正急需这批货。

➤ Is it possible for you to make the shipment more quickly? since we're in urgent need of the goods.

11. 很抱歉，这是不可能的。我们很难在20天内把货物准备好。

➤ We are very sorry that it is impossible. It would be difficult for us to get the goods ready within 20 days.

12. 能否在八月中旬给我们发货？及时发货对我们来说意义重大

➤ Is it possible to make delivery by the middle of August? A timely delivery means a lot to us.

1. 递送 Delivery

M: Hello, Johnson's Furniture. This is Kevin McMillan speaking. What can I do for you?

W: This is Julia Pauling from CC Computer. We still haven't received the thirty chairs. They were supposed to have arrived by 12 o'clock noon the day before yesterday.

M: I'm terribly sorry about that. The truck driver was ill. I spoke with our delivery department at about 10:00 this morning and they said that the chairs will be delivered by 4:00 this afternoon.

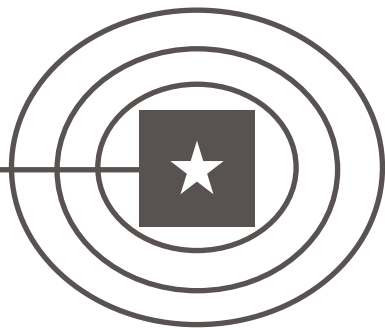

W: Excellent. I'm pleased to hear that.

W: Are you excited about your trip?

M: I can't wait. There's so much to see and do and eat. Paris has some of the most wonderful cheeses in the world.

1. What is the man planning to do?

A. Make some cheese.

B. Go on a trip.

C. Find a job in Paris.

M: Hello everyone! I'm very happy to be invited to this program today. I'd like to share with you my impression of Paris. Actually, there's something interesting to see in every corner of Paris: the old buildings, neighborhoods, and the historical monuments. The weather's been great too, cool and dry. Some aspects of life here are different from those in the United States. The most obvious thing is that there is much more activity in the streets than in a typical US city. People gather together in open markets, cafes, parks, and squares. Then, of course, there's the food. Food seems to be more important here. It's beautifully shown in windows and markets. Everything is fresher and better tasting than at home. I've gained five pounds since I arrived. There are a few things that bother me though. I'm still having a hard time with the language. People speak very fast and it's hard to get them to repeat things. People, in general, are less warm here and it's hard to make friends. I guess that can be true in any big city in a new country, but the French do seem to be less friendly than the people back home.

19. What is difficult for the speaker to get used to?

A. The food. B. The weather.

C. The language.

20. What does the speaker think of the French people?

A. A bit cold.

B. Generous.

C. Easy-going.

W: Excuse me, I'm doing research on bus service. Could I get you to answer a few questions? It won't take long.

M: OK. I like to help.

W: Thanks. How often do you take a bus? Every day? Less than once a week? Or somewhere in between?

M: I go to school by bus. So it's usually twice daily, Line Four.

W: I see. Could you rate its service? If One is poor, Two is fair, and Three is good, which number would you choose?

M: I would say Two. The drivers are nice. The buses are clean and the seats are comfortable, but it's sometimes unreliable. There should be a bus every ten minutes. But yesterday morning I waited almost twenty minutes before the bus came and was almost late for school.

W: Oh, that's too bad. Do you have some suggestions for the bus company?

M: Try to have the buses arrive on time, of course, and um there can be a map on the bus. You know some passengers cannot use the guidebook very well.

W: Thank you very much for your help.

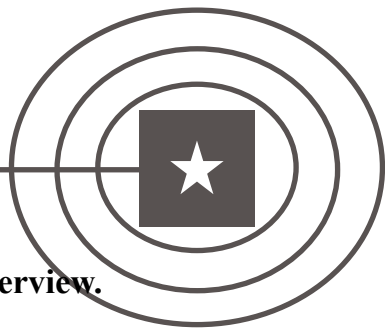

M: You are welcome.

8. 住房 Housing

W: This is the apartment. The living room, the bedroom, the kitchen and the bathroom.
And it's only $600 a month.

M: Not so cheap, actually. But it's quiet and should be a nice place for an artist.

3. What are the speakers talking about?

A. A local artist.

B. The man's salary.

An apartment to let.

W: Hi, I've only just arrived.

M: Oh, good. Now here are the keys. Let's go in. There are two apartments. The one for rent is on the right. Do come in.

W: Thank you. I like the carpet. The color is nice, isn't it?

M: Yes, and this apartment is in good condition. Here is your lounge.

W: Where would we eat?

M: There is this corner here, or you can use your kitchen. Come and see.

W: The kitchen is quite small.

M: Yes, but it has everything, cooker, fridge, even a dishwasher.

W: And there are lots of cupboards.

M: Let me show you the bedrooms. This is the smaller one.

W: It's a good size, though.

M: Now come into the other bedroom. You can see the bathroom, too.

W: Yes, it is very nice. But I will have to ask my friend first, and we will come together. I understand it is $800 a month.

M: Yes, but a few blocks downtown would be much more expensive.

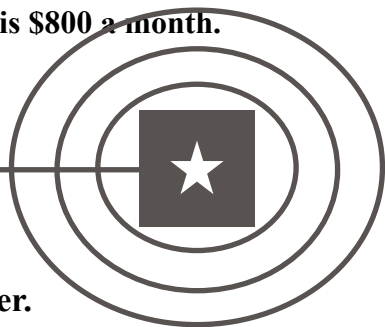

W: Well, thank you. I will be in touch

13. Why does the woman meet the man?

A. To look at an apartment.

B. To deliver some furniture.

C. To have a meal together.

14. What does the woman like about the carpet?

A. Its color.

B. Its design.

C. Its quality.

15. What does the man say about the kitchen?

A. It's a good size.

B. It's newly painted.

C. It's adequately equipped.

16. What will the woman probably do next?

A. Go downtown.

B. Talk with her friend.

C. Make payment..

M: Good morning, I'm one of the students who rented your flat. It's 55 Park Road.

W: Oh, yes. Everything all right?

M: Not exactly. I'm afraid there are a couple of problems.

W: Oh! I'm sorry to hear that. What kind of problems?

M: Well, we haven't had any hot water for a couple of days now. I wonder if you could send someone to have a look at it.

W: Of course. I'll get someone to come around at the weekend.

M: Well, could he come around a bit sooner? I don't think we can manage until the weekend.

W: I see. Okay. I'll send someone over this afternoon then.

M: There's also the matter of the fridge. We all assumed there would be one in the flat when we moved in, because that's what we read from the advertisement in the newspaper.

W: Ah, yes. Sorry about that. I got rid of the old fridge, but I didn't get around to ordering a new one yet. I'm really sorry. I'll order one today and get it delivered to you tomorrow.

M: We bought one on the Internet actually. But could you pay us back?

W: Of course. Just tell me how much you paid for it.

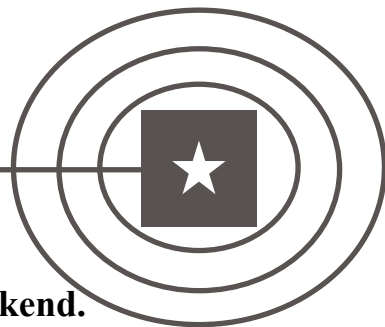

M: It's 260 pounds. Thank you.

W: Yeah, and I heard the food is tasty. By the way, are you going to the concert tomorrow evening?

M: Yes. Are you?

W: Yeah, Catherine was supposed to go with me, but she may have to work extra hours tomorrow.
Do you know anyone who might like to go?

M: No. But if you like, I can ask around. Er, Joan might want to go.

W: I'm not sure about this soup, Carl. It has no taste.

M: No! I don't think so, Maria. It tastes fine to me. We've been to this place before, and I don't feel the soup tastes any different.

W: Well, I still think it needs something. Salt?

M: No, certainly not. What about pepper? If anything, I think it could use a little more of that.

W: Now you're talking. That's exactly what it needs. And how about some more onions too?

M: I don't know about that. You seem to be starting to like food with strong tastes recently.

W: Well, I haven't decided yet. What are you going to order?

M: I think I'll have the roast chicken. They really make it well here.

W: I had roast chicken yesterday when I ate out with Shelley.

M: Their beef steak is good too. You can have it served with beans and mushrooms.

W: But I'm not that hungry. Is the fried fish or the seafood salad good?

M: Never had them before. Maybe if you get the steak, we could share.

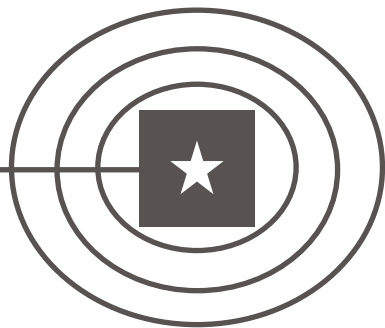

W: That sounds like a good idea.

A. In a classroom.

B. In a library.

C. In a bookstore.

W: Sir, you've been using the online catalogue for quite a while. Is there anything I can help you find?

M: Yes, thank you. I've got to write a paper about Hollywood in the 30s and 40s. And I'm really struggling. There're hundreds of books, and I just don't know where to begin.

W: Your topic sounds pretty big. Why don't you narrow it down to something like, er ... the history of the comedies during that time?

M: You know, I was thinking about doing that, but more than 30 books came up when I typed in "Hollywood comedies".

W: You could cut that down even further by listing the specific years you want. Try adding "1930s" or "1940s", or maybe "Golden Age".

M: "Golden Age" is a good idea! Let me type that in. Hey, look! Just six books came up. That's a lot better. I think I will get started with these books. Thanks a lot.

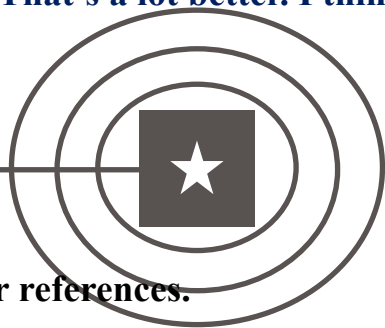

W: You're welcome. If you need more help, I'll be over there, at the Reference Desk.

17. 家庭Family

M: Do you often ask your kid to help in the kitchen?

W: Yeah, Sarah enjoys pouring, mixing, and serving her creations to family members.

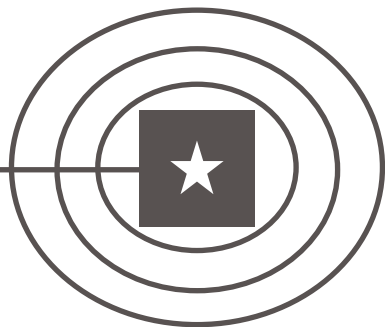

M: Good! According to an article I've just read, that encourages healthy eating in kids.

M: Anna just emailed to say that the managers' meeting is put off till next Monday. Will you have everything ready by then, Sabrina? Hey, Sabrina, what's wrong?

W: I'm so worried. I haven't heard from my sister for two weeks.

M: How often do you call each other?

W: Normally at least once a week, but she's now a volunteer teacher at a mountain village in Africa. I can only write her.

M: The mail can be really slow sometimes. I'm sure you'll hear from her soon.

W: I hope so.

M: You know the saying, "no news is good news." If something were wrong, someone would have called you.

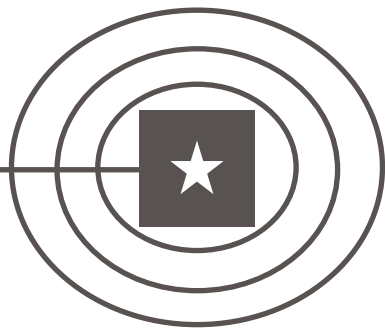

M: Maybe you're right. Thanks, Jason.

W: Hello, everyone. Welcome to our program. I'm Jenny Jackson. The weather here in Juárez has become unbearable, with no rains for over a year. The city is suffering from unusually hot weather. Some light showers have been forecast since last month, but all of them have been effective in surrounding areas. Summer has not even started yet. The temperatures have reached 40°C in the past three days and people have been warned not to go out of their homes, not if you walk on foot at least between 11:00 in the morning and 7:00 in the evening. Little kids and the elderly are the ones who have suffered the most from the extreme heat wave. They must drink water all the time. To help our audience have a better understanding of this extreme weather, we've invited Professor Torres from university of Mexico to our studio this evening.

C. Forecasting the weather.

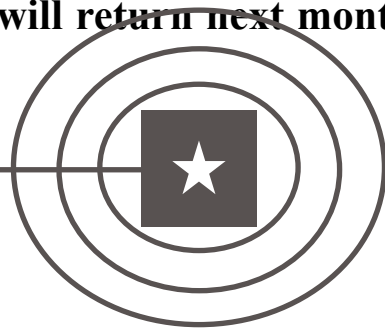

M: Hi, this is Francis Lake. Here is the weather forecast for Bristol and the Southwest for tonight and all day tomorrow. The evening will be mainly dry with light mist. Later however there will be a few showers in high places. Tomorrow will start off dry and bright in most areas, with temperatures slightly above normal for this time of year. Coastal areas will be warmer and can expect a fair amount of sunshine in the morning. However, by midday, it will become cloudy in most areas, with rains spreading generally from the west. In the afternoon, there will be rain in most places, with winds becoming stronger along the coast. The rain will be quite heavy. Sorry I haven't got better weather news for you holiday makers. But don't get too upset. The forecast for the end of the month is for much warmer and drier weather in all parts of the country. Wet days will return next month though. And now, back to news from the southwest.

W: Dr. Heath, you seem to be busy every day. What do you do besides giving lectures?

M: I need to prepare class notes and hold office hours. However, I spend nearly two-thirds of my time doing research.

4. How does Dr. Heath spend most of his time?

A. Giving lectures.

B. Conducting research.

C. Doing office work.

W: Hey, Bill. I hear they're going to send you to Germany for the new project.

M: Boy, news travels fast around here. I only got the orders a couple of hours ago. Rachel doesn't even know.

W: Oh, no. So what are you waiting for? When do you plan to tell her?

M: Well, she's at work at the moment. She doesn't finish until five. I'll have to wait until tonight now, I suppose.

W: Well, I was posted there before, back in 2008. It's OK. A bit like England really. At least the weather is similar, and the people aren't much different. The only thing I didn't like is the food, especially the sausages. What do you intend to do about the family? Are you going to take them with you?

M: Well I'd like to, but I don't know much about the situation at the moment. You know, about schools and all that. But I hope to move the family out there in a couple of months' time. I don't think I want to spend a year and a half out there on my own, I mean, without Rachel and the kids. I mean, I don't see that much of them now as it is.

W: Yeah. Well, that's the way it is normally in our company I suppose.

M: Yeah, well, we'll see. Let me pay for the coffee.

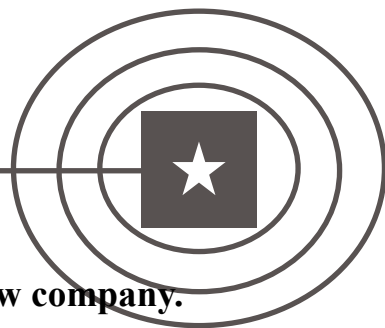

W: No, no, I'll pay.
