My Weekend

Last weekend, we took part in a picking activity.

Hundreds of the students took part in it. At 8:00 am, all students gathered at the school gate and set out for a farm. On arriving, all kinds of animals, green fresh vegetables and fruit trees in the farm came into our sight/ we were greeted with all kinds of animals, green fresh vegetables and fruit trees in the farm. We were divided into two groups. One group was responsible for picking fruits, the other packed up the fruits. Time flying quickly, the activity was over.

But we learn a lot from it. Not only did we close to nature but also we knew how hard the farmers are and how precious the food is.

My Weekend

Last weekend, my classmates and I participated in a picking activity which left an unforgettable impression on me.

Located far away from the crowded city, the farm had wide varieties of fruit trees, whose branches were heavily laden with ripe and inviting fruits (枝头上挂满了熟透诱人的水果). Having been instructed by an enthusiastic farmer, we got down to picking with delight. Some students put ladders against the trees to pick those lovely fruits, while others were in charge of delivering them into baskets. Bathed in sunshine, everyone sang and laughed while picking, exhausted but fulfilled.

Looking back, I really appreciate the activity, for it offers us a precious opportunity to purify our souls from the stressful urban life. The activity has passed, but the world heavy with the scent of fruits will stay in my mind forever.

This English Week turned out to be a great success. By immersing everyone in the charm of the language, the activity fueled our desire to be better English learners.
