Dear friends,

We are greatly honored tonight to be here with Mr. White. On behalf of all the teachers and students of our school, I want to extend our warm welcome and sincere greetings to our distinguished guest, who has come so far away from America to help us with our English studies.

Mr. White is an experienced language expert devoting himself to the teaching of English during the past 20 years. He has written a lot of books on English study, all of which are of great benefit to us. It's surely our school's great honor to have Mr. White as our English teacher.

Now welcome again, Mr. White. Let's wish Mr. White a pleasant time in China.
