The outbreak of COVID-19 spreads throughout the whole country even the world, affecting our lives and causing many problems.

I am Li Hua, president of students union. The epidemic situation we are faced with now severely threatens our lives and survival, thus we should start from little things to overcome the difficulty.

The COVID-19 has made its way across China, and even stretched around the world, which poses a great impact on our life and study. In order to fight against the virus, all of us are supposed to do as follows.

Nowadays, sweeping across the whole country and even involving the world, the COVID-19 has posed a great threat to all of us. So I would like to advocate that some small but irreplaceable measures should be taken.

Para 2: detailed advice (at least two)

We are supposed/required/expected to do...

We had better do/ ought to do ...

It is suggested/advised that ...

It's a good choice to do...

It is advisable to do...

It would be wise if...

It's of great importance/significance to do...

Immediate measures should be taken to do...

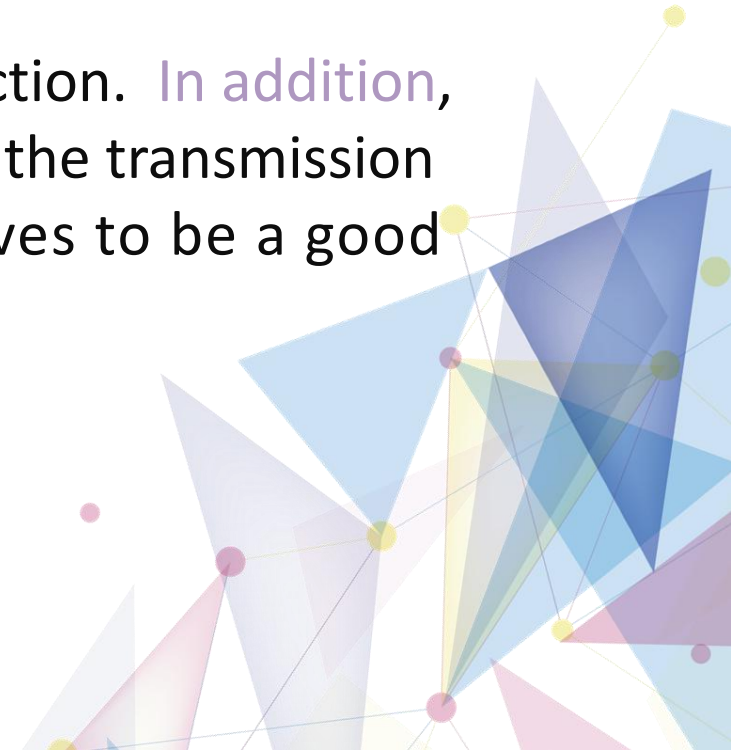

First and foremost, all of us should attach great importance to staying at home. It's the most effective way to help get the epidemic under control.

Additionally, wear face masks when outdoors due to the droplet transmission.

If possible, we could do some volunteering/voluntary work for our community.

Above all, everyone ought to raise our awareness of self-protection. In addition, it's of great significance to wash hands regularly, which can resist the transmission of virus effectively. Last but not least, moderate exercise proves to be a good choice, as it strengthens our body.

Para 3: appeal (again)

(appeal to; call on /for; advocate.../It's high time sb. did...)

1. Let's join together to fight ...
2. Let's take responsibility for ourselves and others. Let's take action now!
3. Let's make every effort/ spare no effort to overcome the difficulties.
4. Only if we take effective steps to deal with this problem now can we...
5. Only in this way can we make a great success.

I hereby appeal to every one of us to do some small bits to go through this hard time.

Let's start right now and spare no effort to do a little every day, every hour and every minute.

Let's act hand in hand as every small act is meaningful to the world.

Hello, I am Li Hua. As the president of students' union, I have the duty to remind you of the epidemic situation we are faced with now. Nowadays, the coronavirus has infected thousands of people nationwide and even spread all over the world, which affects every aspect of our lives. So I'm writing to call on everyone to pay attention to it, starting from small things.

Above all, you are supposed to stay at home because being responsible for yourselves and others is the principle. Second, we are required to tidy our hands thoroughly before meals and after toilet, which greatly lowers the risk of infection. Lastly, try focusing on school work.

Wish you all the best.

Dear fellow students,

Nowadays, the coronavirus has infected thousands of people nationwide and even spread all over the world, which affects every aspect of our lives. We hereby call on every one of us to pay attention to it, starting from small things.

Above all, we are supposed to stay at home because being responsible for ourselves and others is the principle. Second, we are required to tidy our hands thoroughly before meals and after toilet, which greatly lowers the risk of infection. Lastly, try to work out regularly. I am convinced that we'll win the fight against the virus.

Dear fellow students,

Nowadays, the dreadful Covid-19 is raging (rage), even spreading rapidly across the world, causing a global disaster which terribly (terrible) affects our study and life. For the purpose of containing the epidemic and getting everything back on the right track soon, we ought to make efforts (effort) from now on.

Obviously, we can't be too careful to protect ourselves (us). Above all, we'd better wear masks while going out. Additionally, washing our hands properly and frequently is also an effective way to avoid developing (develop) this acute pneumonia. Last but not least, it's wise to employ our time to learn something useful (use).

We shouldn't fail to shoulder (shoulder) our responsibility at such a crucial point. As a saying goes, "In unity there is strength (strong)". Let's take action hand in hand and heart to heart. I hold the firm belief that the victory belongs to us.
