Dear Leslie,

I'm delighted to introduce Chinese Youth Day, the traditional annually festival of Chinese youth on May 4th, when young people all over the country join in the fun.

Varieties of activities will be held on campus, including sports matches, stage performances, speech contests and so on, as well as awards ceremonies in honor of those advanced individuals and groups. The celebrations usually lasts a whole day.

Chinese Youth Day is in honor of the students' movement 100 years ago, which is much more than just a historical event. It reminds us young people of what we should bear on our shoulders, to inherit the bravery, loyalty and efforts for our future.

I hope you can benefit a lot from my brief introduction.

Yours sincerely
Li Hua
