After three rounds of fierce competition, Xiao Hua from Class 3 Grade 2 was finally crowned champion. The competition is more than a thrilling singing contest. It is also a symbol of our campus culture and an attitude towards life. (83 词)

第二节 (满分 25 分)

I saw my father's red car pull up near the school lot. I walked up to the car and got in. He smiled at me, played the radio, and started driving home. And soon he noticed my gloomy face, and asked me what was wrong. "Nothing. Well, it's just that all my friends made the school team. Everyone! Except me..." I stammered. "Well, what are you going to do about it?" he asked. Surprised, I didn't know what to say. Nobody was going to give me a spot on that team. I would have to earn it. I decided to train for my goal of making the team. After all, I thought, hard work beats talent when talent doesn't work hard.

After almost a year of training, I tried out for my seventh-grade team. "Step, dribble, shoot," I said to myself, "You got this!" After the tryout, I felt confident and congratulated myself. Regardless of the outcome, I knew that I had worked hard and learned something about mental toughness. The next day, I found out I made the team; seeing my name printed in large bold letters felt as though all my dreams came true in one wondrous moment. The greater the effort, the sweeter the reward, and by making the team, I had officially made a turnaround.
