第二节 书面表达

Dear Mary,

Knowing that you're crazy about giant pandas, I can't wait to recommend to you an interesting and meaningful summer camp -- the Panda Breeder Summer Camp.

The camp falls on July 15th and lasts 5 days in Chengdu, Sichuan, where you have been dreaming of travelling. On the first day, all the participants will be given some basic panda-breeding lessons, which will help to better perform the next tasks. Then they are scheduled to spend the following four days visiting baby pandas and breeding them with the help of the zoo keepers. What an amazing experience it will be!

If you would like to apply, please log on the website www.pandacamp.com and fill in your personal information. I guarantee you a fabulous time.

Yours,
Li Hua

听力录音稿

Text 1

M: Good morning. What seems to be the problem?

W: Good morning. I feel terrible. I've got a cold and I have a pain here on my neck. I'm not sleeping well either.

Text 2

W: Hi, David. What happened yesterday? I waited for you in the rain for an hour. You forgot our date, didn't you?

M: No, I remembered. But I had a bad cold, so I decided to stay home. I'm terribly sorry.

Text 3

W: What kinds of sports do you like?

M: I used to play tennis and football a lot, but I like swimming most now, because it is fun and keeps me fit.

Text 4

M: Good morning, madam! I'd like to take a few minutes to show you how much better your life will be with the help of our newest PC.

W: Now, I'm too busy washing clothes to talk about computers.

Text 5

W: Do you have any books for children?

M: Yeah, we do. Over there. There are mysteries on the top shelf, science books on the second shelf, and books about animals on the bottom.

W: Thanks. I'm looking for a book about horses.

Text 6

M: Is there anything I can help you with?

W: Yes. Would you please clean the dining room? I' ve almost finished washing the dishes. I' m going to do the drying up when I finish.

M: OK. That was a great meal, by the way.

W: Actually, it was just some leftovers from yesterday. I made far too much food to eat alone. I am glad you could come over to help me finish it.

M: My pleasure!

Text 7

M: How can I help you?

W: My son is going to have his 16th birthday party at home. I'd like to get him a gift.

M: What price of gift are you interested in? We'll need to know that before we introduce them to you.

W: Well, I usually spend about twenty dollars on a gift. Do you have anything nice for that price?

M: How about a pencil-box?

W: No, my brother gave him one for his birthday last year.

M: Well, would he enjoy a book on how to play PC games?

W: No, he is good enough to write a book himself. He loves playing PC games.

M: Then you can get him this magic car. He must be interested in that.

W: Good idea. I'll take it.

Text 8

M: Have you applied for your visa to go to study in the United States yet?

W: Yes, I have. I handed in my application form two weeks ago, and I' m going for an interview next week.

M: Good luck! I' ve heard it' s very difficult to get a visa to go to the United States.

W: The application forms are quite complicated. It took me a few hours to fill them out. The hardest thing was getting all the necessary documents. That took almost two weeks.

M: What kind of documents did you need to present?

W: I had to show documents relating to my financial status and of course my education, because I want a student visa.

Text 9

M: Hello. I would like some information about trains to Edinburgh.

W: OK. When do you want to travel?

M: Next weekend. Friday or Saturday.

W: Do you want a return ticket?

M: Yes, please. Can you find the cheapest fare, please?

W: Let me see. Unfortunately, traveling on Friday or Saturday is quite expensive. The cheapest return fare is £ 16.50.

M: That is a bit too expensive.

W: Do you have a student discount card? That way it would be cheaper.

M: Oh, yes. Of course. Here you are.

W: Well, with the discount, it would cost £ 12.50 for the return ticket. Does that suit you?

M: Yes. That's much better.

W: Good. Which day do you want to travel, Friday or Saturday?

M: I think Friday morning would be perfect, if possible.

W: OK. And when do you want to return?

M: Sunday evening. Around 6 p.m.

W: Fine. Here is your ticket. Your train leaves on Friday morning at 9:30 a.m. And on Sunday it leaves Edinburgh at 6:15 p.m. Is that OK?

M: That's perfect for me. Thank you.

W: You're welcome.

Text 10

W: Welcome to ABC electronics. First, let me go over what we do in the department during a typical workday. We basically work from 8:30 to 5:30 with an hour-long lunch break from 12 to 1, although we do expect you to do a little overtime if there's something important to do. The lunch break is flexible. You can go a little earlier or a little later if you prefer. The main thing is that all our work must be completed on schedule. We even allow our employees to go home early if they finish their work early. You should attend a department meeting every Monday morning. There are other meetings for people working together on certain projects. Department heads also attend an interdepartmental meeting every two weeks. At first, you'll be responsible to me. Later, you'll be working more independently. Salaries are paid directly into your bank account, so make sure you give the accounts department all your bank account details as soon as possible.
