即学即用

Zhu Zhiwen, once a farmer, dreamed of being a musician. It's true that many people played jokes on him and were not confident about him. Actually, he relied on his confidence and persistence to practise singing for 30 years, during which he once performed music in pubs, and recorded songs in studios as well. His efforts earned him success, and he rose to fame with the help of his instructors.

Now everybody is familiar with his songs, and his voice is familiar to everyone. He is grateful for the help he has received from people, without which he couldn't have made such great progress. In addition, he attaches great importance to his fans and has promised that the relationship between him and his devoted fans will never break up.
