How does Henry feel?

Roderick: Young man, would you step inside a moment, please?

Henry: Who? Me, sir?

Roderick: Tell us, Mr. Adams, what sort of work did you do in America?

Henry: I worked for a mining company. Could you offer me some kind of work here?

Oliver: What luck! Brother, what luck!

Henry: Well, it may seem luck to you but not to me! Now, if you'll excuse me, I think I'll be on my way.

Oliver: Good luck, Mr Adams.

Henry: Well, why don't you explain what this is all about?

How do we effectively express people's feelings through dialogues/monologues?

Example 1:

Alice finally meets the Red Queen who is used to always getting her own way. When Alice stands up to her, the Queen turns red with fury, and, after glaring at her for a moment like a wild beast, screams “off with her head!”

- Alice in Wonderland

Example 2:

“Help!” Mac yelled out loud in a trembling voice. “Get in!” Becky yelled back and opened the door to let him in. Mac jumped into the car immediately and slammed the door shut with a loud bang.

nearby. Very early in the morning, Uncle Paul woke us up to have breakfast. “The day starts at dawn on my farm,” he said. After breakfast, I went to help Aunt Tina feed the chickens, while my dad went with Uncle Paul to take the sheep out to graze(吃草). I was impressed to see my dad and Uncle Paul riding horses. They looked really cool.

In the afternoon, I asked Uncle Paul if I could take a horse ride, and he said yes, as long as my dad went with me. I wasn't going to take a horse ride by myself anyway. So, my dad and I put on our new cowboy hats, got on our horses, and headed slowly towards the mountain. “Don't be late for supper,” Uncle Paul cried, “and keep to the track so that you don't get lost!” “OK!” My dad cried back. After a while Uncle Paul and his farm were out of sight. It was so peaceful and quiet and the colors of the brown rocks, the deep green pine trees, and the late afternoon sun mixed to create a magic scene. It looked like a beautiful woven(编织的) blanket spread out upon the ground just for us.
