

Why not carry on her
good work?

Acts of Kindness

Scan the passage

Make a list of three of Lin Qiaozhi's achievements

- She got a medical training for her career.
- She became a specialist in women's diseases.
- She had made sure that about 50000 babies were safely delivered.

- Did I / the writer do the research on Lin Qiaozhi on purpose?
- For whom and for what purpose did Lin Qiaozhi write a little book about how to look after babies? Why was it necessary?

By chance

I came across an article about ...

One of them caught my eye.

. para 2 .

- Did I / the writer do the research on Lin Qiaozhi on purpose?
- For whom and for what purpose did Lin Qiaozhi write a little book about how to look after babies? Why was it necessary?

The book was intended for women in the countryside to cut the death rate from having and caring for babies.

. para 2 .

- Did I / the writer do the research on Lin Qiaozhi on purpose?
- For whom and for what purpose did Lin Qiaozhi write a little book about how to look after babies? Why was it necessary?

They could not reach a doctor if they had an emergency

. para 2 .

Lin Qiaozhi is hardworking determined

kind considerate selfless

• Read para 3 and get the evidence to prove

. para 3 .

No matter how difficult the situation is,
there is always sth we can do.

Both “A student of African Wildlife” and “Why not carry on her good work?” are the introduction to a person. Is there any difference about the way these two passages are introduced?

Of these two passages, which is more persuasive/convincing/objective?

A student of African Wildlife

VS

Why not Carry on Her Good Work?

- Secondary Source VS Primary Source
- Opinions VS Facts

Why not Carry on Her Good Work?

- by chance i came across an article ...
- it seemed that she had been very busy...
- one of them caught my eye. (do some research at the computer)
- perhaps if they had an emergency , they could not reach a doctor.
- suddenly it hit me how difficult it was for a woman to ...
- it was hard work and determination as well as her gentle nature that got her into medical school.

The diction is subjective and occasional.

A student of African Wildlife

- Para 1 Following Jane's way (eyewitness)
- Her discoveries about chimps:
 - chimps hunt and eat meat
 - how chimps communicate with each other
 - work out their social system
- Only after her mother came to help her was she allowed to ...
- She helped to set up special places ...
- The quotation of her speech

*The information is primary source offered by eyewitnesses
The quotation and lists of facts are more convincing*